THE HATTERS NICKNAME

The unlikely combination of a famous hat manufacturer and a university produced a novel nickname for Stetson University. The athletic teams are called "Hatters," reflecting the university's association with John B. Stetson, maker of the well-known Stetson hats. It all began in 1883 when Henry DeLand founded the DeLand Academy. Three years later, after a disastrous freeze affecting the citrus industry left DeLand in financial distress, Stetson, who had a winter home in DeLand, became interested in the school. At DeLand's request, Stetson was made chairman of the Board of Trustees in 1889 and the university was renamed in his honor. Stetson University fielded the first football team in Florida in 1901. The name "Hatter" was used then and is still in use today.

HEAD COACH KRISTINA HERNANDEZ

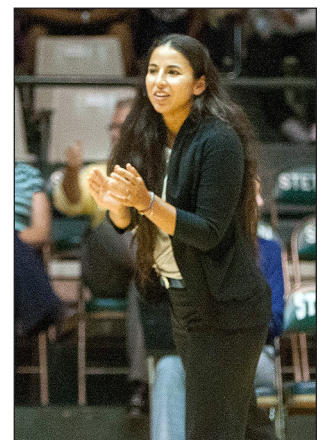

North Carolina A&T, 2003 • Third Season • 30-44

A two-time Atlantic Sun Conference champion and an A-Sun Coach of the Year in beach volleyball, Kristina Hernandez begins her third season as indoor volleyball head coach and fourth season as beach volleyball head coach at Stetson University.

In her first season with the indoor program in 2014, Hernandez guided the Hatters to a 16-13 record and a third-place finish in the Atlantic Sun Conference standings. The Hatters qualified for the ASUN Championship for just the second time in 19 years. In 2015, the Hatters qualified for their third consecutive ASUN tournament and finished the season 11-18.

Hernandez tremendous work with the Stetson beach program in 2015 earned her ASUN Coach of the Year honors. The Hatters won a school-record 22 matches, including 11 in a row at one point. In 2016, Hernandez guided the Hatters to the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship, just one of eight teams nationally to qualify. She coached Stetson's first set of beach volleyball All-Americans in Vendy Strakova and Sara Putt. The Hatters finished the season with a new program record 28 victories and ranked eighth nationally in both the AVCA and DiG Magazine polls.

Hernandez came to Stetson from Hofstra University, where she won 93 matches in six seasons with the Pride, leading them to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2012. Prior to Hofstra, Hernandez coached Loyola University (Md.) for four seasons.
